

The Most Notable Sale of the Season

Exploiting the Newest Mid-Season Novelties In Costumes, Fine Furs, Coats and Ready-to-Wear of All Kinds

Our contribution to the Thanksgiving season is indeed notable. Our Mr. Coblenz has forwarded us from New York quantities of the very latest ideas both in ready-to-wear and dress accessories. This is not a sale in the ordinary sense of the word with the idea of getting rid of merchandise by cutting prices. But, on the other hand, it is offering customers an opportunity to obtain the most stylish garments and accessories that the mid-season has brought out.

Mid-Winter Styles In Black Velour and Velvet Coats

If you are in need of a dressy coat of some kind, you want to be sure and come next week and let us show you some black velour and velvet coats that have just arrived.

These are the side button effects and have rope frogs. They have large shawl or sailor collars, long revers and wide cuffs. On some coats the collar, revers and cuffs are of Bengaline satin. In some cases they are braided or embroidered, and in others plain with wide black fringe. Coats are handsomely lined with messaline in black, white, light blue, coronation, Kelly green, king's blue or some other shade. Prices on these new velour and velvet coats range $17.50, $19.50, $22.50, $25.00 and up to $57.50.

With the above coats we will also show next week a variety of seersucker coats with messaline satin and broadened satin linings.

Serge Dresses--New Shipment of Mid-Winter Styles

We have just received and will show for the first time Monday a big shipment of mid-winter styles in navy blue serge dresses.

These dresses come in sizes for both women and misses. They are made of French and storm serges, high waisted effects, trimmed with velvet, wide braid and buttons, some have large collar of satin or velvet. Prices range from $10.00 to $29.50. We know you will be interested in these new styles in serge dresses, and want you to be sure and come next week and see them. Having Mr. Coblenz in New York, we are enabled to show now styles that ordinarily would not reach El Paso until January.

An Underpriced Purchase Enables Us to Give a Remarkable Value In Dresses

Mr. Coblenz recently secured, at much below the market value, a lot of serge dresses. They come in sizes for women, misses and juniors. They are sailor collar, open front styles trimmed with bands and braid. The colors are brown and navy. It is not an exaggeration to say that had these dresses been purchased in the regular way they would be sold up to $15.

As it is, they are on sale at $7.95

BETTER DEMAND

HELP TO MARKET

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 18.—An increasing demand at Liverpool for forward shipments helped bring about firmness here today in the wheat markets.

The opening here was 1/4 to 3/4 to 1/2 to 1/4 higher. May started at $1.00 1/2, to $1.05, the same change from last night as the last taken altogether. After touching $1.00 1/2 the price rallied to $1.00 1/2.

The close was firm with May 1/4 to 1/2 not higher at $1.00 1/2.

Corn suffered from lack of support. May opened 1/2 down at 64 1/2 c. declined to 64 1/2 c. to 64 1/2 c. and then recovered to 65 1/2 c.

The market closed easy with May 1/4 c. net lower at 64 1/2 c.

Oats traders were guided by the course of corn. May started a shade lower at 50 1/2 c. receded to 49 1/2 c. and rallied to 50 1/2 c.

In the provision crowd buyers backed away from all offers. Initial sales showed a drop of 2 1/2 to 5 to 1 1/2 c. with May at $16.75 to $16.77 1/2 for lard and $8.75 to $8.77 1/2 for ribs.

STOCK MARKET IS WITHOUT ACTIVITY

New York, N. Y., Nov. 18.—Stocks remained almost stationary at the opening today. The demand was light and trading was listless. The largest changes were an advance of 1/4 by Lehigh Valley and a decline of an equal amount by United States Steel.

Special stocks were lifted substantially, particularly Union Pacific and the copper group, but the general market showed little spirit. When profits were taken in the leaders the whole list fell back. Active liquidation in the Wabash securities accelerated the decline. Wabash lost one, the preferred 2 1/2 and the 4 percent bonds 3/4.

The market closed heavy. Attempts to mark up prices were abandoned when it became apparent that the recoveries were being utilized to dispose of stocks. Professional selling was also prompted by the ruling of the court against the beef packers in Chicago.
